

I would like to see K-Love stay on the air because it is very inspiring and helps people that need spiritual guidance. It is refreshing to hear the music they play and the words of hope and love they convey. We need these kind of stations to counteract the rest of the junk that is out there.